Ephraim City would like to start featuring a monthly spotlight in our newsletter showcasing our local established and new Ephraim businesses. There are many unique businesses in Ephraim and we would love to help get the word out to our residents.

If you are interested in having your establishment featured in our monthly newsletter, you will need to send an email with the information listed below, to leah.romero@ephraimcity.org.

Information may be edited depending on space available. Spotlights will be featured one at a time as requests are submitted, interrupted only by new businesses as they open.

Ephraim’s Newest Officer

We are pleased to introduce our newest Ephraim City officer, Devon Krebs. He was sworn in at the September 6, 2017 Ephraim City Council Meeting.

If you happen to see any of our officers as you move about the City, be sure to give them a wave and smile to let them know you appreciate their service.

Devon Krebs

Ephraim’s New Justice Court Judge

We are also pleased to introduce our new Ephraim Justice Court Judge, Mark McIff. He was sworn in at the September 6, 2017 Ephraim City Council Meeting.
Granary Art Center

Granary Art Center invites you to join us for the following October events:

Opening reception of three solo exhibitions, "Destination Unknown" by artist Jean Richardson, "Second Nature" by artist Sarah Malakoff, and, "Signaling Techniques" by artist Kelly Sears. Friday, October 13th / 6-8 PM - This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
