The 2017 Scandinavian Heritage Festival is set for Friday and Saturday, May 26-27th (Memorial Day Weekend).

The festival begins Friday at 10 a.m. in the Huntsman Library auditorium at Snow College at 150 E College Avenue, with the Scandinavian Heritage Conference, a free educational event:

- 10:00 am - Richard Stevens
  Blackhawk War

- 11:00 am - Dr. Vance Larsen
  Early Music History of Ephraim, the Sanpete Valley, and Snow College

The Little Scandinavian Dinner, a gourmet Scandinavian smorgasbord, will be served Friday at 6 p.m. at the Greenwood Student Center at Snow College. The cost is $13 for adults and $7 for children 12 years and younger. No reservations are required.

A fireworks show will be held after the dinner at the ball fields at dusk.

From Friday noon through Saturday at dusk, the festival grounds on the north side of the Snow College campus, Co-op/Art Center/Bishop's Storehouse, and at Pioneer Park, 50 N 100 W, will buzz with costumes, dancing, storytelling, entertainment, historical tours, craft and food booths and more.

Enjoy the Grand Parade on Main Street at 10:00 am Saturday morning. Come early to get a good spot. If you would like to participate in the parade, registrations are now being accepted on the Scandinavian Festival website.

As always, there will be many fun events including the Vike on a Bike race, a Fun Run, 5K, 10K and half marathon.

For more information on times, dates and places, and to register for the races and tournaments, be sure to visit the Scandinavian website at www.scandinavianfestival.org
